DON'T FORGET!

TO PARTICIPATE

in the Coalition to Prevent DVT's first-ever webinar to learn more about deep-vein thrombosis (DVT) and pulmonary embolism (PE).

The DVT webinar for patients is coming up next Wednesday, January 27, 2010!

As a reminder, the webinar will focus on understanding DVT and PE, the risk and how it can be prevented, and will cover the following topics:

- What is DVT/PE?
- What causes DVT/PE?
- Who's at risk?
- DVT signs and symptoms
- Why is risk assessment important?
- How is DVT/PE diagnosed?
- What you can do to reduce or manage the risk

The webinar will be presented by Ruth Morrison, R.N., B.S.N., C.V.N., Coalition To Prevent Deep-Vein Thrombosis Steering Committee Member.

Again, the webinar is this coming Wednesday, January 27 from noon - 1 p.m. (EST).
